STEAM From Home

South Charleston, W.Va - BridgeValley will be offering a new virtual camp this summer called STEAM From Home.

Students will use BBC micro:bit single board computers to create their own working pinball game that includes lights, sound and interactive scoring. Other activities will include building a solar rover, chemistry experiments, green screen videography, and more!

For an $80 camp fee, students will receive a box of supplies that they can use to follow along live broadcast lessons from camp teachers. Lessons will be approximately 9AM-Noon Monday through Thursday, with an optional class on Friday.

The camp weeks are June 15-19 and July 13-17.

Rising 5th graders through 9th graders can sign up for either week.

The limit for each week is 50 students.
